

IMPORTANT NOTICE

St. Bernard's Elementary School to Reopen on Wednesday, November 25:

This message is to advise parents that the follow up air quality test by an independent air quality consultant has confirmed that there are no issues and no further recommendations regarding air quality concerns at St. Bernard's Elementary.

Therefore, St. Bernard's Elementary will reopen on Wednesday, November 25th. A copy of the clearance test results will be provided to parents as soon as the final written report is available.
